Small Employer of the Year

Small Employer of the Year

The Small Employer of the Year award recognises a small enterprise that has achieved excellence in the provision of nationally recognised training to its employees.

Nationally recognised training refers to training based on a national training package or accredited course which results in a person receiving a formal qualification or Statement of Attainment issued by an RTO. This includes Australian apprenticeships.

Eligibility

To nominate for this award, an organisation must employ 19 or fewer full time equivalent employees. The South Australian Training Awards will accept joint applications from:

- a Group Training Organisation (GTO) partnering with a host employer
- a host employer partnering with a GTO.

Nominations will not be accepted from:

- branch offices of larger enterprises (NB. franchisees may nominate if their training activities are organised independently of the franchise group)
- organisations whose core business is the delivery of VET (these organisations may consider nominating for the Training Provider of the Year award).

2020 state winners of this category are nominated to enter a shortlisting process for the Australian Training Awards.

Preparing your application

Section A: Overview

This information will not be considered or used for shortlisting or judging purposes but may be used as a summary of your organisation throughout the awards process.

Provide a brief description of your business, including the products or services that you offer and any major milestones you have achieved.

(limit: 500 words)

Section B: Applicants will be judged against the following criteria:

Criterion 1: Extent and quality of training for employees

Criterion 2: Employee outcomes

Criterion 3: Business outcomes

Addressing the criteria

This information will be considered and used for shortlisting and judging purposes. Please be aware that your responses to the criteria will be strengthened by including measurable results and appropriate indicators, including customer satisfaction data and other types of external validation.

The considerations listed under each criterion clarify what to include when addressing the criterion.

Criterion 1: Extent and quality of training for employees

Describe the training your small business is involved in.

Include:

- the qualifications or courses your employees are undertaking
- the number of employees actively engaged in training
- the training organisations delivering the training
- a brief account of an innovative training approach you are using (e.g. mentoring, e-learning, collaborative learning).

(limit: 800 words)

Your training organisations could assist you with this criterion.

Criterion 2: Employee outcomes

How has training benefited your employees?

Include examples of:

- how training has improved the wellbeing of your employees
- how training has improved the productivity of your employees
- an employee who has particularly benefited from training.

(limit: 800 words)

Criterion 3: Business outcomes

How has training benefited your business?

Include:

- how training has improved your relationships with clients
- how training has improved the productivity and profitability of your business
- an example of how your business has grown as a result of training.

(limit: 800 words)
